Deborah Brice:

Deborah worked as a nurse and then a health visitor. In the last 15 years she specialised in Safeguarding and Looked After Children working strategically in a leadership role for the NHS. As a member of the Local Safeguarding Children's Board she worked closely with statutory partner agencies to develop, progress and monitor the safeguarding and looked after children's agenda.